

Greening of our cities Transition Talks 2012

Sunday Afternoon Talks about moving from an unconscious consumer society to communities of Life Sustaining Systems and Philosophies

Last Sunday of every month from 5 - 6:30 pm

Fee: $10 suggested donation to support the speaker

What to bring: your curiosity, an open mind and the willingness to interact with others.

January 29th - Hey, what are they growing on that roof?

Food Production in Our Cities

with Genevieve Metson, Phd. Candidate, McGill University, Natural Resources Science Department

February 26th - The Work That Reconnects - Cultural Knowledge, Emotional Balance and Inner Strength Work to help the modern person be an everyday activist.

with Allison Ulan, Buddhist Activist, Co - founder of Ashtanga Yoga Montreal and Ayurvedic Yoga Specialist

March 25th - Heat Under Our Feet - Geothermal Energy

with Sophie Martin, Geothermal Educator and Advocate

April 22nd - Permaculture - What the heck is it and how can I be part of it in the city?

with Graham Calder Scientist and Permaculture Educator

May 27th - "Does recycling make any difference?"

with William D. Lubell Professeur, Département de Chimie, Université de Montréal

Ashtanga Yoga Montreal

372 Saint Catherine Street west #118 (514) 875-9642

ashtangamontreal.com

